PALEY ROTHMAN ANNOUNCES ATTORNEY HIRING

BETHESDA, MD--Paley Rothman, a full-service law firm in the Washington area for close to 40 years, has announced the hiring of Ethan Don, 29, as an associate.

Mr. Don, of Rockville, Md., will work primarily as a member of the firm's Employment Law practice group, representing companies and organizations in front of local, state and federal courts, helping employers establish and implement employment policies, and advising them on compliance and other ongoing employment issues. He will also work with the firm's Litigation group, calling on his commercial litigation experience to represent clients in a wide range of business-related matters.

Prior to joining Paley Rothman, Mr. Don was an associate in the Washington, D.C. offices of two prominent international law firms (most recently at Hughes Hubbard & Reed) where he focused on complex commercial litigation, including large antitrust cases and securities and bankruptcy matters. He also served as a law clerk to United States District Judge Marcia G. Cooke in Miami, Fla. and as an intern to Judge Mary Ellen Barbera while she sat on the Court of Special Appeals of Maryland.

A cum laude graduate of American University's Washington College of Law, Mr. Don served as Note and Comment Editor on Law Review. He also was a member of the school's Moot Court Honor Society's Intellectual Property team and participated in the Civil Practice Clinic where he was admitted to practice and represent low-income clients. He earned his B.S. in Aerospace Engineering at Syracuse University, where he was a researcher for the Department of Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering.

Mr. Don is a member of the Maryland Bar and is licensed to practice in Maryland and the District of Columbia.

Paley Rothman, founded in 1972, has grown to a firm of more than 30 lawyers that provides legal counsel to corporate and individual clients in a wide range of practice areas. It maintains a business-orientation and handles tax, real estate, employment law, estate planning, litigation and a variety of other matters for businesses and professionals throughout the Washington metropolitan area.
